DCSP

- operation in the Windows
- programming 100 and 200 series CSP control panels;
- program makes it possible to prepare a control panel setup file in the offline mode, in advance;
- edition of zone, input and relay output names;
- edition of messages displayed on an LCD screen during supervision (regards CSP series 200);
- system event memory readout;
- alarm memory readout;
- program makes it possible to export the event and alarm memory read out to a .csv file;
- direct connection to a computer via a control panel RS–232 port

The actual appearance of the products may differ from the presented images. Product descriptions are provided in the web service for information purposes only.